Ad Text The leader of radical religious group Nation of Islam, Louis Farrakhan, announced that 20th anniversary Million Man March rally will take place on October 10, 2015 in Washington, D.C., at the National Mall. Organizers of the Million Man March call for justice, standing against the police and for blacks, Latinos and incarcerated.

They say racism rises among the police officers, but in fact it rises among radical groups. Only black activists say "black lives matter", forgetting the fact that justice is when all lives matter.

Americans are not against blacks, Latinos, etc. But if somebody breaks the law, he should be punished despite of his color or religion. If somebody goes over the speed limit, he should be ticketed. If somebody breaks the immigration law, he should be deported. If somebody kills a man, he should be imprisoned.

Given the fact that two Islamic extremists who were arrested one year ago in Ferguson belong to the Nation of Islam, I cannot believe in Farrakhan's benevolent intentions.

This Million Man March looks like another liberal overture to black and Muslim communities. This is a bad idea, especially if we take into account the recent news about British jihadi who have published the address of the Navy Seal Robert O'Neill, the man who fatally shot Osama bin Laden, and called on American extremists to execute him.

There is no problem, if whoever wants to live in the United States. But he should live here legally; he should not break the law. It's justice.

Ad Text The Justice Department is set to release about 6,000 inmates from federal prisons in a bid to reduce overcrowding. It is the largest one-time release of federal prisoners. The Department will release drug offenders who received harsh sentences over the last three decades. Every third of them is illegal immigrant.

Barack Obama has criticized overblown sentencing laws that "disproportionately impact communities of color." But is it indeed a reason to release criminals? If Latinos commit crimes often than whites, it doesn't mean that some Latino criminals should escape penalty.

Ad Text Why I March! #JusticeOrElse

20 years ago. 20 years a million men, women and children gathered on the National Mall in Washington, DC answering the call from Minister Louis Farrakhan to come to the nation's capital and show our strength in numbers and unity and remind politicians that our voices would be heard. 20 years later, we return to call on our politicians to fix our broken criminal justice system once and for all.

I march to fix a system that houses more black men in our prison system than there were black men enslaved in 1850. To fix a system that allows for local prosecutors to investigate their friends at the police department when there is an officer-involved shooting. To fix a system that has drug laws that disproportionately arrest black and brown people for using drugs when white people use at the same rate. To fix a system that has built a private industry off the backs of prisoners laboring for pennies. To fix a system that doesn't video record the actions of law enforcement at all times. To fix a system that criminalizes young women who are pimped and sexually trafficked before they even turn 18. To fix a system that does not collect any national data on incidents when police use excessive force or discharge their firearm. To fix a system that has incarcerated more people than any other nation in the world. To fix a system that has created a school to prison pipeline by harsher school discipline practices for young students of color. To fix a system of policing that targets communities of color by programs like "Stop & Frisk" or "Broken Windows."

This is why I march. This is why we all should march in order to build a better future for our kids. We should fight the institutional racism in the country.

Like and share if you want to help the movement!

Ad Text Mass Shooting At Umpqua Community College In Oregon, 10 Reported Dead

Ten people were killed and seven were wounded Thursday in a shooting at a small community college in Roseburg, Oregon. The shooting took place in classrooms in Snyder Hall.

Law enforcement officials have identified Chris Harper Mercer as the man responsible for the mass shooting. He had four weapons on him - three handguns and one assault weapon. Also he was definitely ready to put up a fight, because he had body armor and stash of ammunition.

One of the witnesses said that the gunman first asked about people's religions before he began firing.

The hospital said that all victims were female between the ages of 18 and 34, and quoted a doctor who said that an "army" of doctors and nurses had volunteered to help.

It's the 45th shooting at a school so far this year. Obama said that America is the only country on Earth that sees these kinds of mass shootings every few months. And he's right. People already got used to this. Isn't it time for some gun control yet?

Some white supremacists say that the killer was mixed and he supported BLM. This information is not confirmed and is more likely to be fake. This dude is definitely not black. His parents are Caucasian. The fact it's been a few hours since the shooting and they haven't say what race he is means he's white. And honestly, word "shooting" isn't used correctly here. Can we call it terror? Oh, wait. White male though...

I can't keep silence while stupid idiots forbid our children to wear patriotic clothes. I can't keep silence while Obama creates comfortable conditions for terrorists, accepting of 10,000 Syrian refugees. I can't keep silence while liberals spit on the U.S. Constitution.

Ad Text Common response after the massacre in Oregon is 'I Want to Have a Gun'.

"I want to have a gun in the house to protect myself, to protect the people I'm with. I'm sure I'll have a normal life and never have to go through anything like this, but I want to be sure," said Mr. Vicari, 19.

The right to bear arms allows the people to protect themselves. Gun control will deprive them this opportunity. And criminals will buy a firearm illegally. I don't know why some liberals are not able to understand it.

Anyway, patriots stand for the 2nd amendment. We will never allow them to repeal or amend it!

Ad Text You know the Second Amendment is our unalienable right to bear arms that was granted Americans by the Founding Fathers. However, liberals just spit on the U.S. Constitution. So, Hillary Clinton said it's "worth considering" a nationwide gun ban and a "buyback" program to eradicate private gun ownership.

Hillary says she is a democrat. Huh! No, she like Obama should say they're socialists who want to set up tyranny. The Founding Fathers had enough brains for preventing the situation when dictators run the country. They decided that armed nation is able to overthrow a tyrant. Maybe is it a true reason why Hillary Clinton stands against the Second Amendment?

Ad Text All Roads Lead To Washington D.C.

On October 10, 2015 in Washington, D.C., at the National Mall, The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan will convene the 20th Anniversary of the Million Man March under the theme: Justice or Else!

"The Million Man March was one of the most historic organizing and mobilizing events in the history of Black people in the United States," said Chicago-based Dr. Conrad Worrill, who was a main organizer of the March and the current president emeritus of the National United Black Front. The widespread death, rising racism, mob attacks and police brutality on Blacks coupled with economic deprivation and stark poverty, requires that something must be immediately done to address and correct the condition. We should stop the violence and the killings and present ourselves as a united front before the Government of the United States of America. Fredrick Douglas said " Power concedes nothing except by a demand". Our demand of government must be backed by the power of our unity and love of the brotherhood.

It's really important for all of us, brothers and sisters.
Join the Movement! 10-10-15

Ad Text Come and show on which side you are in the fight against police brutality.

Please, join families of people killed by law enforcement at the National Day of Protest Against Police Brutality on October 22. 956 people were killed by police in 2015, and at least 161 of them were unarmed. We all witness justice being gone from this country, and we all understand: each of these stolen lives must never be forgotten.

October 22 is a day when thousands of people throughout the country can join forces to express their outrage, sorrow and resistance as a response to the brutality of this system.

October 22 is time to show that we all have an opinion, it's time to fight back.

Ad Text This military campaign is very ambiguous given that it has cost nearly 2,500 American lives and hundreds of billions of dollars. The goal was to "disrupt the use of Afghanistan as a terrorist base of operations." Well, the intervention deprived al-Qaida of a sanctuary. But al-Qaida — even after its leader Osama bin Laden was killed by U.S. commandos — has spawned cells elsewhere and inspired other extremists in Syria and Iraq. And now ISIS is rising as the most powerful terrorist organisation in the world. So, the question is whether it's worth to risk the lives of thousands of American soldiers for the mission that hardly can be called successful? It seems that Obama should review his military strategy without delay. Join us! Veterans USA (@veterans GovSpending

Ad Text Help us spread their shame! Anonymous unhoods the KKK prominent politicians.

US Senators Thom Tillis (R-N.C.), John Cornyn (R-Tx.), Dan Coats (R-In.) and Johnny Isakson (R-Ga.).

US mayors Madeline Rogero of Knoxville, Tennessee; Jim Gray of Lexington, Kentucky; Paul D. Fraim of Norfolk, Virginia; Kent Guinn of Ocala, Florida; and Tom Henry of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

As long as there are the KKK members in the government, racism in the country will prosper. They should resign.

If you want to stop this madness, take a minute to sign the petition:

<https://www.change.org/p/barack-obama-u-s-house-of-representatives-u-s-senate-list-the-ku-klux-klan-as-an-official-terrorist-organization>

We need around 2,000 signs to reach 10,000. The KKK should be labeled as a terrorist group!

Share this with your friends and ask them to sign the petition!

Your efforts will be appreciated. It's time to make a change!

Ad Text A heavily armed Syed Farook, his wife and brother opened fire on a holiday banquet for his co-workers Wednesday, killing 14 people and seriously wounding more than a dozen others in a precision assault. Hours later, two terrorists died in a shootout with San Bernardino police. One shooter still at large.

It is known that gunmen are Muslims. They are very religious and probably linked with ISIS. California shooting should become a lesson for the administration – accepting refugees from Syria threatens the National security.

It's tragedy. Enemies of America attacked our people again. Unfortunately, today we have no strong leader who is courageous enough to conquer terrorism. Nevertheless, we will not allow terrorists to change our way of life. We will not allow them to restrict our freedoms.

We express our sincere condolences to families of victims in California shooting. If you want to express sympathy for victims, change your Facebook profile picture, using this web site <http://imsanbernardino.info>
